OUR THEME

SO GREAT IN THE TRADITIONS OF OUR AMERICA, THEIR NATIVE LAND, ARE THE INDIANS THAT THEIR NOBLE SPIRIT WILL LIVE AS AN INSPIRATION TO ALL WHO MEET THEM WITH AN OPEN HEART. BECAUSE OF THEIR PRIMITIVE GREATNESS AND DIGNITY, THE MEMBERS OF THE 1947 COYOTE STAFF WISH TO INSCRIBE THIS BOOK THROUGH OUR THEME TO THE MANY TRIBES OF THE SOUTHWEST. WE HAVE BEEN LURED AND FASCINATED BY THE LEGENDS OF THE APACHE, NAVAJO, HOPI, COMMANCHE, TAOS, ACOMA AND ZUNI TRIBES.

CEREMONIALS DRAMATIZE EVERY PHASE OF THE ANCIENT WISDOM OF THE INDIAN ANCESTORS. THESE SACRED RITES WHICH WE USUALLY REFER TO AS DANCES ARE IN REALITY GENUINE RELIGIOUS EXPRESSIONS OR PRAYERS. THE CEREMONIALS WHICH THE INDIANS EXHIBIT TO THE PUBLIC ARE A COMBINATION OF THE ANCESTRAL RITES AND CATHOLICISM, INTRODUCED BY THE SPANIARDS. THE TRUE INDIAN RITUALS, WHICH EXPRESS WORSHIP OF NATURE, ARE ENACTED IN THE KIVA, TO WHICH VERY FEW WHITE MEN HAVE BEEN ADMITTED.

THE SNAKE DANCE, SHOWN ON THE ADMINISTRATION DIVISION PAGE, IS ONE OF THE MOST ANCIENT OF THE INDIAN CEREMONIALS. THE MAIN PURPOSE OF THIS RITUAL IS TO BRING RAIN FOR THE CROPS. THE BUFFALO DANCE, THE FRONT FIGURE ON THE JUNIOR CLASS DIVISION PAGE, IS GIVEN DURING THE HUNTING SEASON EITHER AS A PRAYER OR IN THANKSGIVING TO THE GREAT SPIRIT. THE EAGLE DANCE, THE BACK FIGURE ON THE SAME PAGE, IS THE CLIMAX OF A HEALING CEREMONY. THE HOOP DANCE, SHOWN ON THE PUBLICATIONS DIVISION PAGE, IS A DANCE OF SKILL OF LONG ANCESTRAL TRADITION.

ANOTHER PHASE OF THE INDIANS' LIFE WHICH EMPHASIZES SKILL AND ENJOYMENT CAN BE SEEN IN THEIR SPORTS. THE INDIAN GAME OF LACROSSE, AS PICTURED ON THE SPORTS DIVISION PAGE, IS A GENERAL FAVORITE AMONG THE NATIVE AMERICANS FROM COAST TO COAST. THE GOOD LUCK ARROW MENTIONED ON THIS PAGE, IS APPLIED NOT ONLY TO GOOD FORTUNE IN THE FIELD OF SPORTS BUT ALSO TO EVERY PHASE OF THE INDIAN'S LIFE.

THE NATIVE AMERICANS HAVE LONG BEEN SKILLED CRAFTSMEN. ALMOST EVERY INDIAN MAN AND WOMAN EXCELLS IN SOME CRAFT. THE ZUNI MEN AND WOMEN ARE ARTISTS IN THE DESIGNING AND MAKING OF EXQUISITE JEWELRY. THE NAVAJO MEN AND WOMEN ARE FAMOUS FOR ELEGANT JEWELRY AND THE BEAUTIFUL RUGS WHICH THEY WEAVE ON PRIMITIVE LOOMS. HOWEVER, IN THE HOPI COUNTRY THE MEN ARE THE WEAVERS. THE WOMEN OF THE ACOMA AND OTHER TRIBES EXCEL IN POTTERY MAKING. SEVERAL OF THE CRAFTSMEN OF DIFFERENT TRIBES ARE SHOWN ON THE SOPHOMORE PAGE.

THE KATCHINA DOLL, ONE OF WHICH IS REPRODUCED ON THE COVER, IS IMBUED WITH GREAT RELIGIOUS SIGNIFICANCE, REPRESENTING THE SPIRIT OF THE KATCHINA GODS. IT IS SENT DURING THE CEREMONIALS AS A MESSENGER TO THE INDIANS' ANCESTORS TO BRING BACK THEIR WISDOM AND BLESSINGS. IT IS CARVED FROM COTTONWOOD BY THE INDIAN MEN IN THE KIVA DURING THE CEREMONIALS. LEGENDS SAY THAT THE KATCHINA GODS CONTROL THE RAIN, THE SNOW AND THE GROWTH OF CROPS.

WE WOULD NOT BE SO BOLD AS TO ATTEMPT TO DUPLICATE OR COPY THE EXCELLENT ART OF THE INDIANS. WE HAVE GAINED INSPIRATION FROM THEM, AND WE GIVE TO YOU OUR MODERN INTERPRETATION OF INDIAN LIFE AND LORE. HAVING INTERWOVEN OUR SCHOOL LIFE WITH THE INDIAN THEME, THE 1947 COYOTE STAFF PRESENTS THIS BOOK TO YOU, THE STUDENTS OF WICHITA FALLS SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL.

DEDICATION

WE, THE MEMBERS OF THE 1947 COYOTE STAFF, WISH TO DEDICATE OUR YEARBOOK TO MISS IDA JANE COLLINS, WHO GAVE SO SPLENDIDLY OF HER TIME AND ABILITY TO THIS PUBLICATION. THE UNUSUAL POPULARITY AND SUCCESS WHICH THIS PRODUCTION HAS ENJOYED, IS LARGELY DUE TO HER CONSCIENTIOUS EFFORTS AS TEACHER, SPONSOR AND FRIEND.

WHO'S WHO

It has been the intention of the Favorite Editors and others of the Coyote Staff to keep the identity of the favorites and beauties unknown until the presentation of the book. This has been done by the casting of secret ballots. Representatives of the Coyote Staff, Coyote News Staff, and the Senior Class counted the votes.

Having now unmasked our array of beauties and favorites, we wish to present those students who have ranked highest in some particular subject. Our Who's Who section was kept secret through the cooperation of the teachers, who selected the students for their outstanding ability in a certain field.

However, some students have received honors in two or three subjects, and not wishing their pictures to appear more than one time, we have placed an asterick by the name of the students whose pictures are elsewhere in the Who's Who section.

BEN HOWLE

Ben, a specialist in pin-point passes, was of great benefit to the team at the tail-back slot. The Coyotes will miss him next year.

JACK CHRISTOPHER

Small and lanky "Chris" added his abilities in wingback section of the Coyote backfield. He will return next season as a candidate.

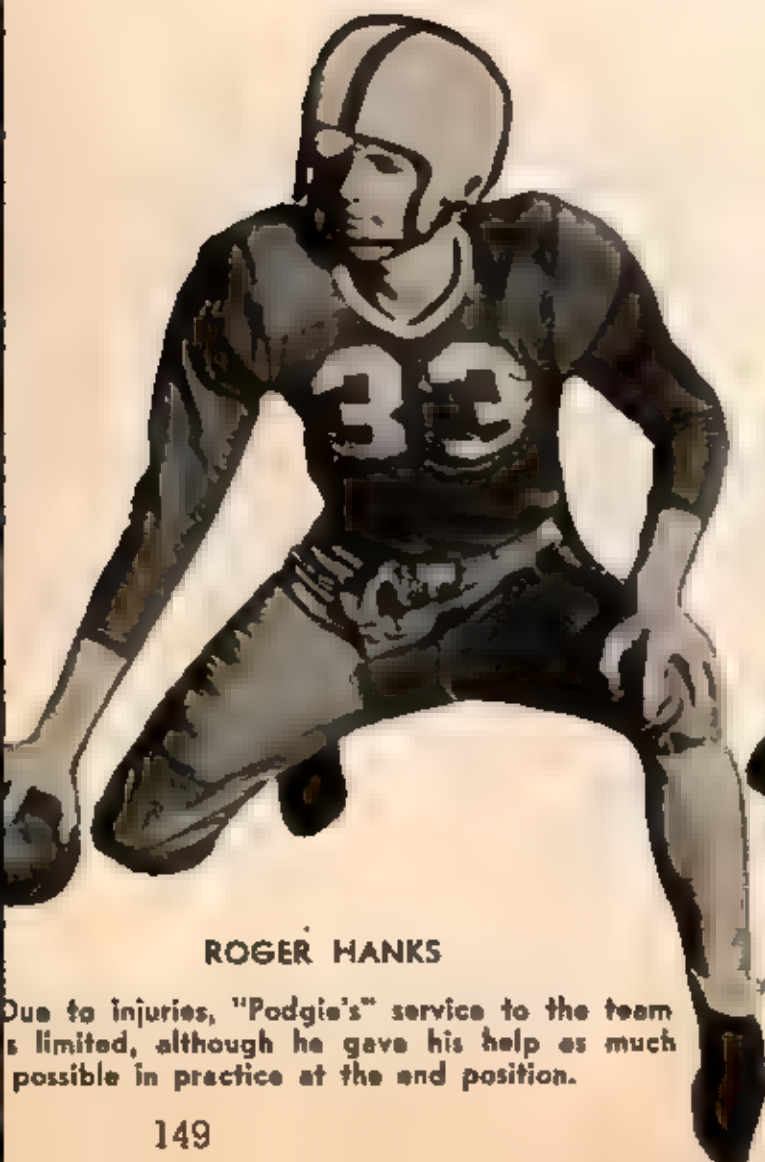

DICK NORRISS

Dick did a good job at holding down the pivot post for the '46 Coyotes. His hard playing proved invaluable for the team's spirit. He placed on the second all-district team.

BOB HALL

Gaining experience and playing time as a stand-in in many games this season, Bob proved his proficiency at the wingback post. He will return next year as a regular member of the pack.

ROGER HANKS

Due to injuries, "Podgie's" service to the team is limited, although he gave his help as much as possible in practice at the end position.

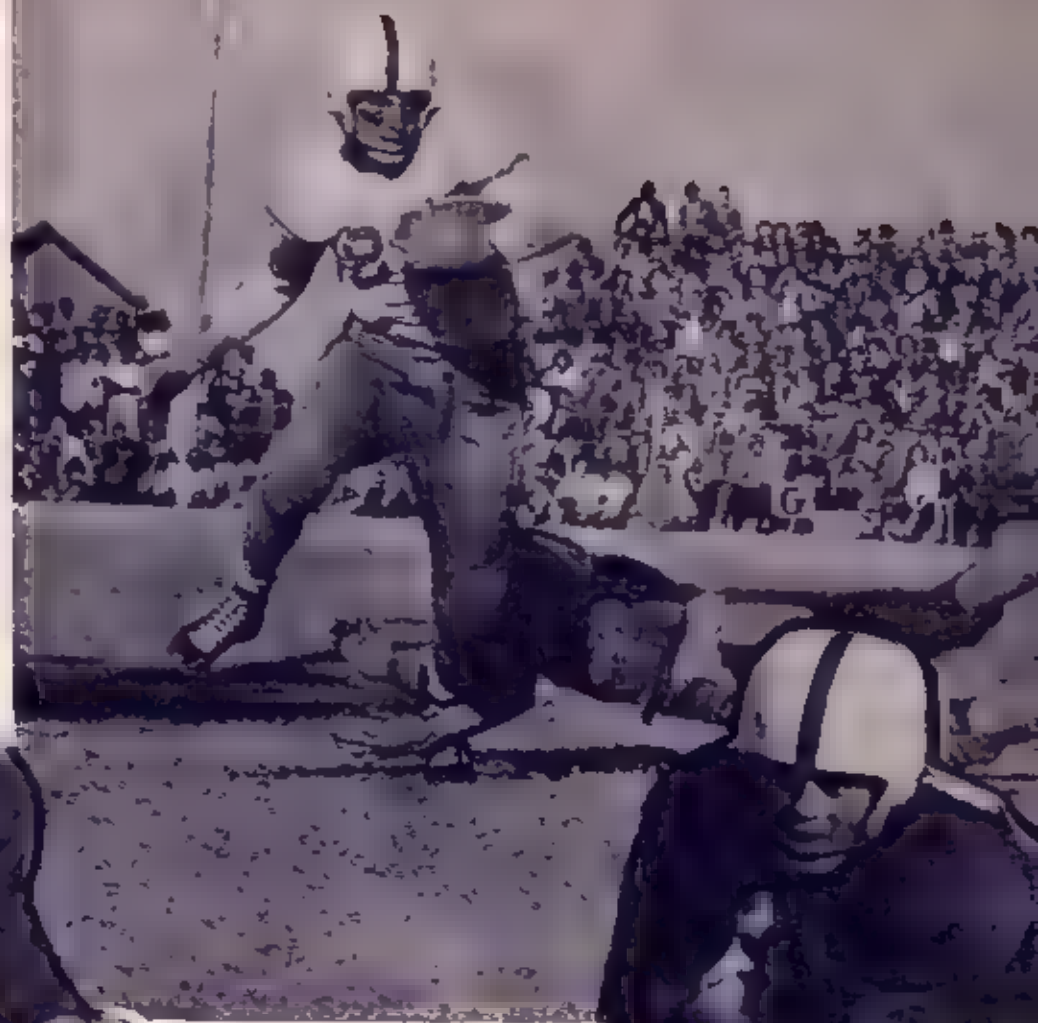

DAVID DONALDSON

"Donnie," with his first year of play on the Coyotes, proved to be a valuable first string substitute as center. Watch for him on the starting lineup in '47.

HANK TALLANT

Despite his lack of weight, Hank was always a dependable, hard-fighting guard. He bottled up many of the opponents' line-plunges. A team will always do well to have a man of his caliber.

LA VERNE MARSHALL

Another one of "them linemen," Curly proved caliber with aggressiveness and ability. Next year will see this player scrapping for the starting line-up.

CLARENCE LAWSON

Hard charging "Bull" played a violent full-back and in so doing gained honorable mention on the all-district team. He will return with his tactics of line-busting on offense and linebacking on defense in '47.

CALVIN WINDHAM

Calvin was another of the "middle-men" on the Coyote squad, turning in a fine job at the center position. With his added co-operation and helpfulness, the '47 Coyotes should go far.

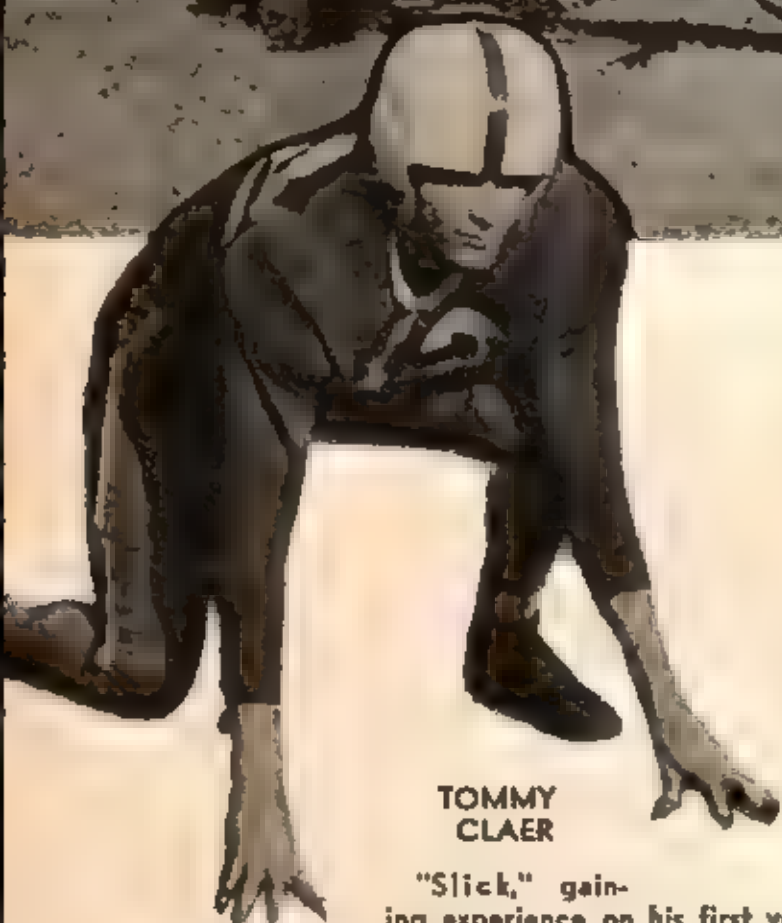

FRANK SMALLEY

"Smalley" showed all-around ability as a line-man on the '46 squad, acquiring ability with his hard tackling and good blocking that will be useful to next year's team.

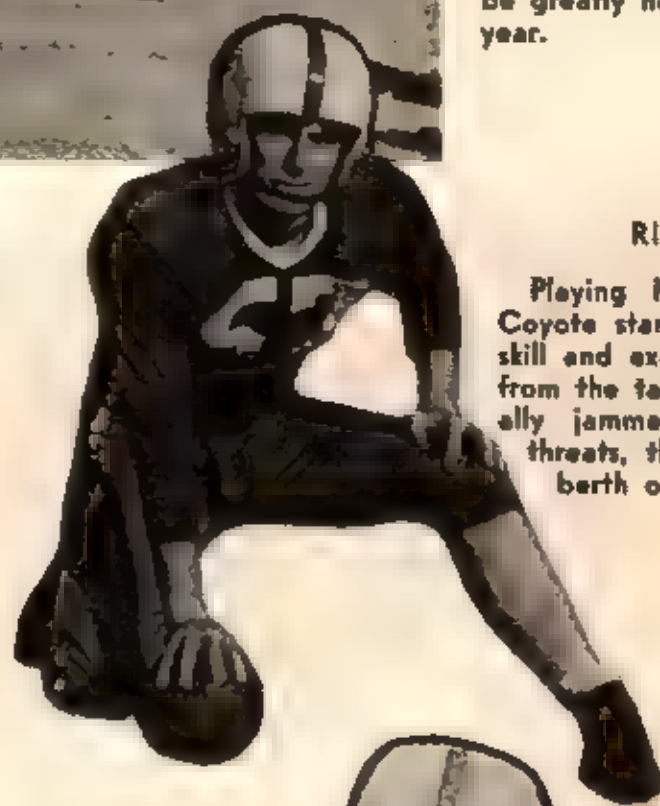

FREDDIE SIMMONS

"Fritz" had the knack of bringing down passes that really paid off. His offensive game at the end post was fast and steady. The '47 squad will be greatly helped by his return next year.

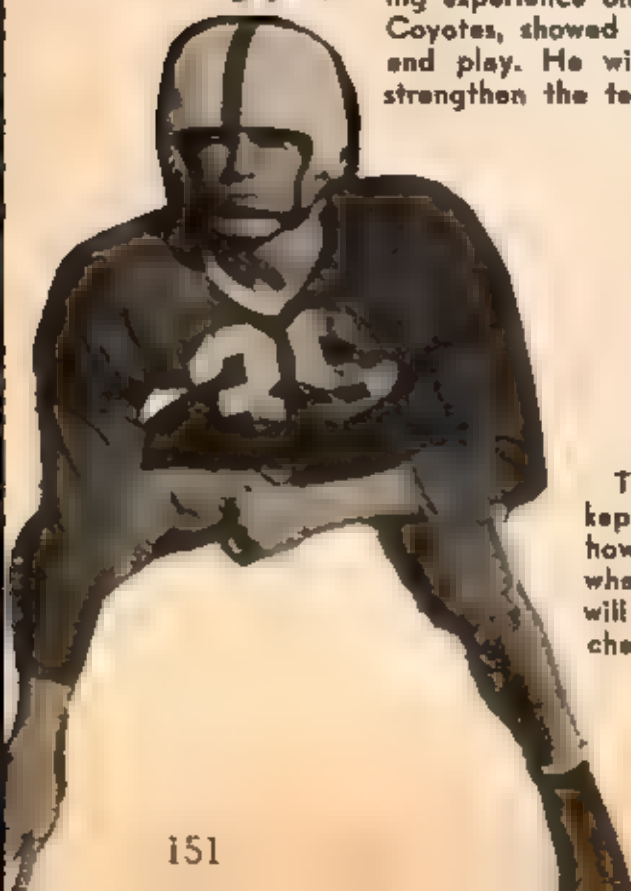

TOMMY CLAER

"Slick," gaining experience on his first year with the Coyotes, showed up with his aggressive end play. He will return next year to strengthen the team.

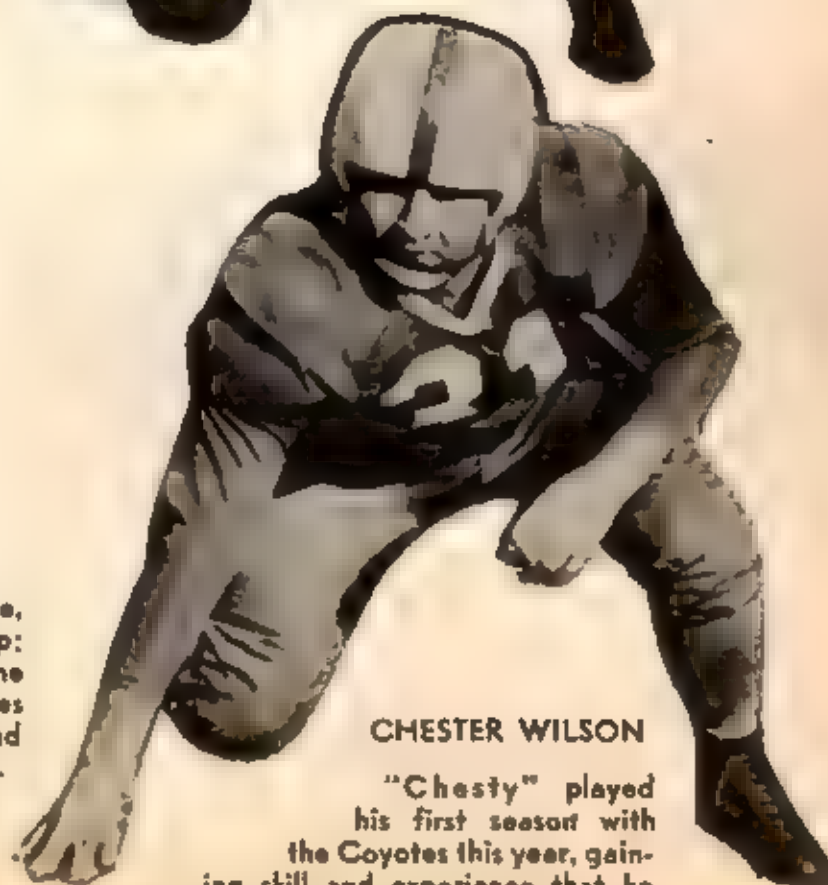

RICHARD LOWE

Playing his second year on the Coyote starting lineup, Dick put his skill and experience to use this year from the tackle position. He personally jammed up many opponents' threats, thereby gaining himself a berth on the all-district team.

GUY HILL

The old bug-a-boo, experience, kept Guy off the starting lineup; however he played a fine game when given a chance. The Coyotes will miss his co-operation and cheerfulness when he graduates.

CHESTER WILSON

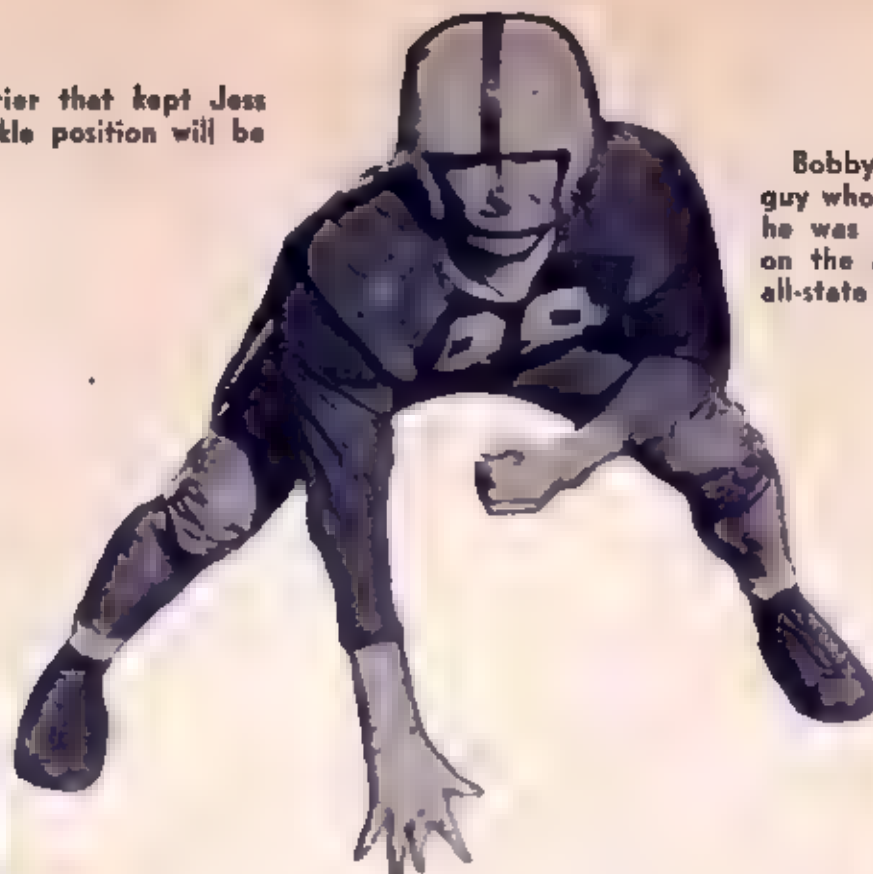

"Chesty" played his first season with the Coyotes this year, gaining skill and experience that he will use in the future. The combination of his weight and his ability should place him on the '47 starting team.

JESS CROSS

Lack of experience was the only barrier that kept Jess from playing more than he did. The tackle position will be strengthened when he returns next year.

BOBBY ROGERS

Bobby, the scat-back of the club, was the "lit guy who wasn't there" when it seemed certain he was going to be tackled. He landed a spot on the all-district and honorable mention on the all-state teams.

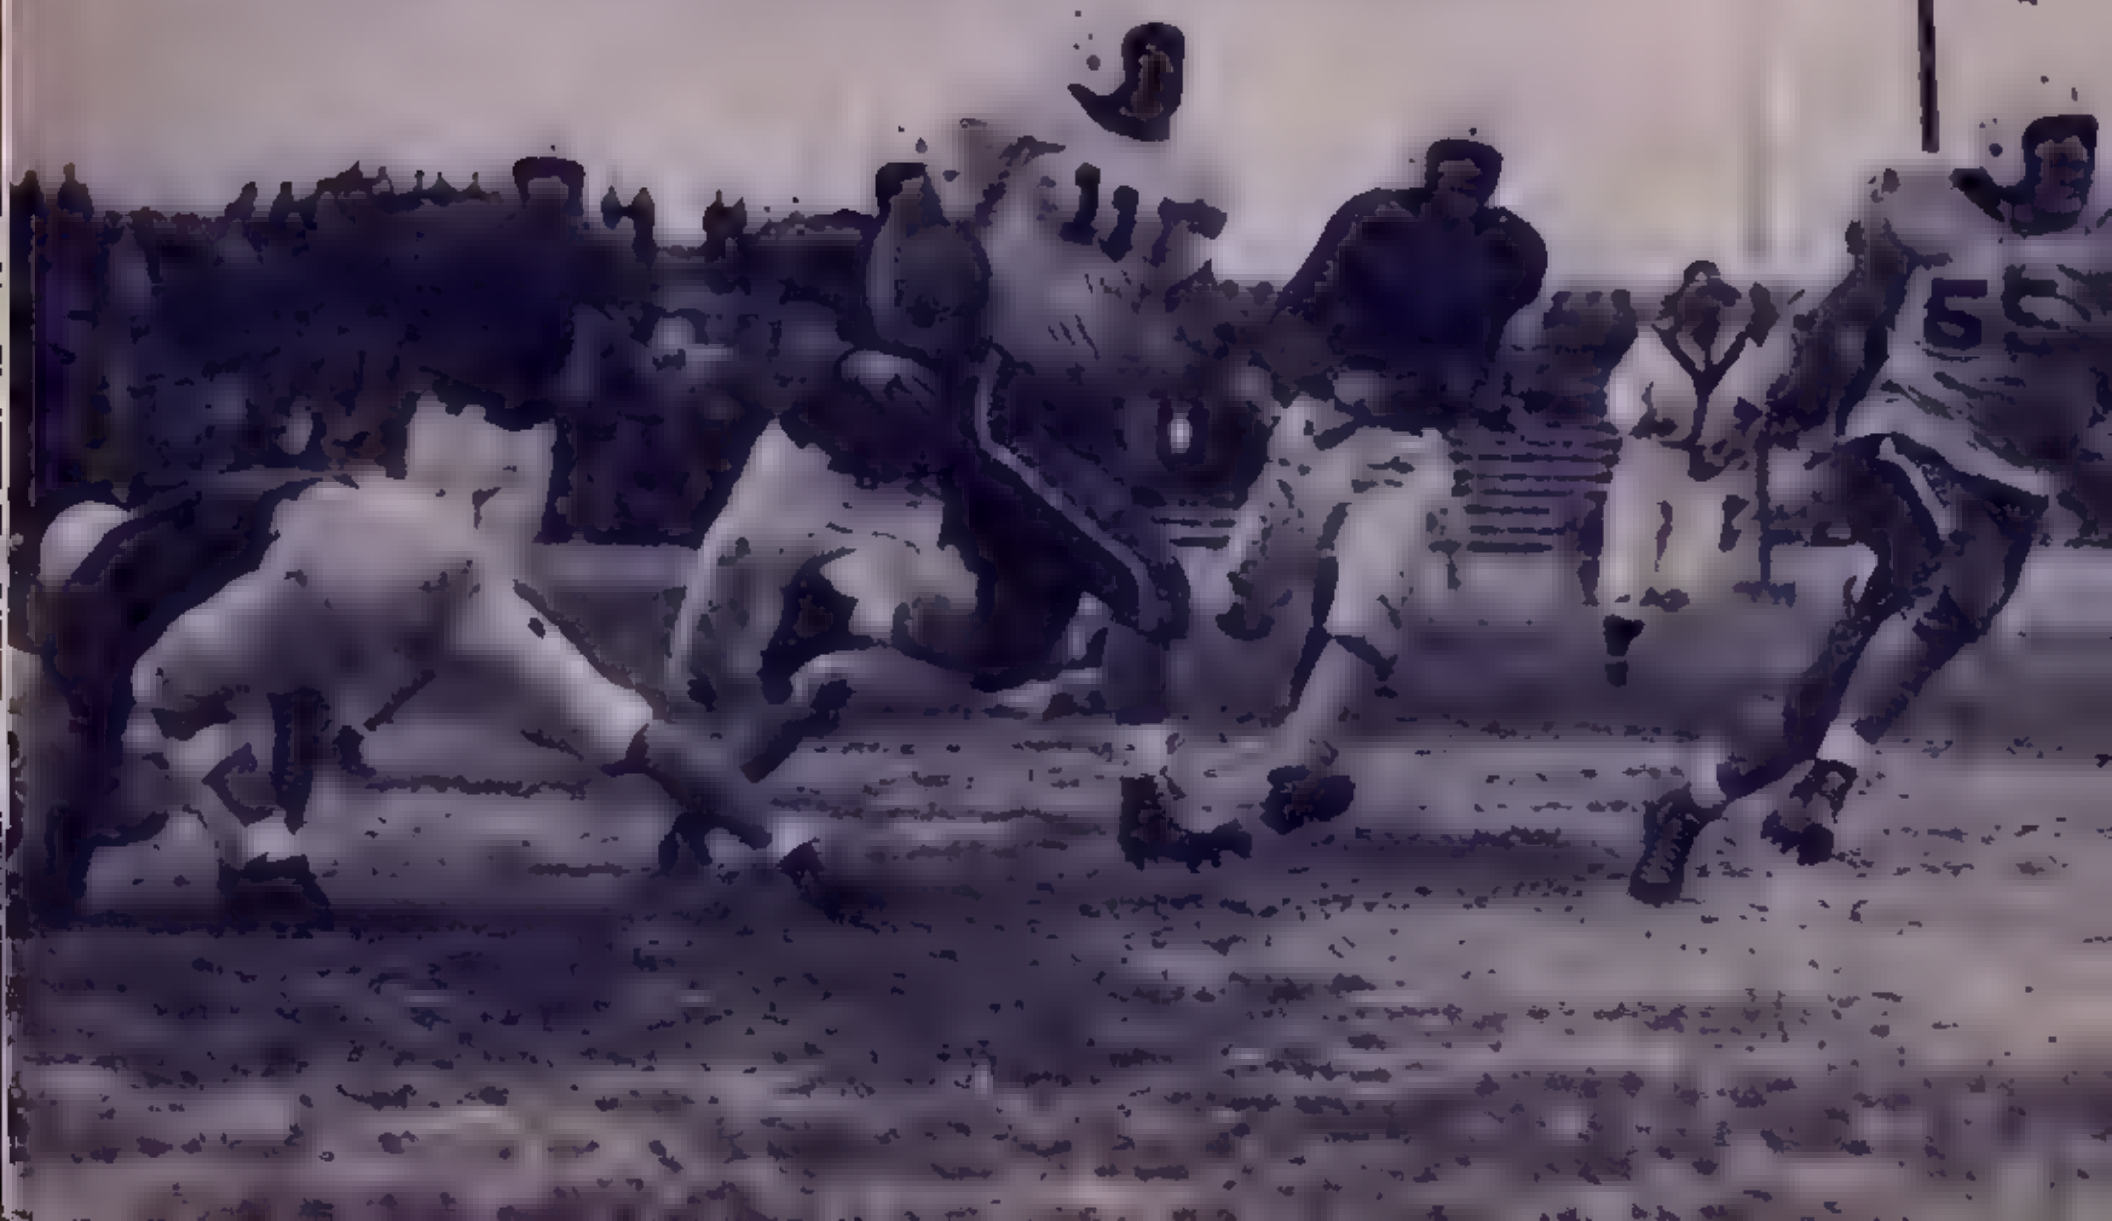

BARLOW HILL

When the whistle blew, Barlow was the fellow who did the kicking. Playing an outstanding game on offense and defense at the guard and later tackle slots, he earned himself a place on the second all-district eleven. He will return in '47.

COYOTES-AMARILLO

MACK KNIGHT

Mack lacked the experience possessed by some of the older boys on the team, but he had the enthusiasm and fortitude to make them respect him. He will be missed when he receives his diploma.

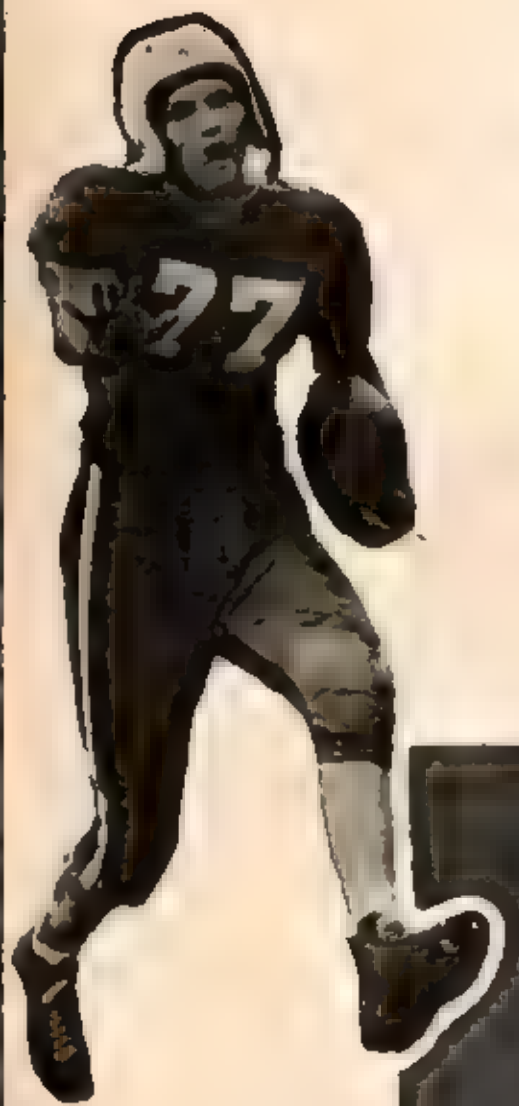

GENE BOREN

Playing his first year on the Coyotes, Gene showed great promise for the '47 team. His helping hand was appreciated both in practice and in play.

JIMMY MARTIN

"Cotton" was a very valuable substitute his first year, filling in many times on the first team. The player who makes the starting guard next year will have to contend with Cotton's ability.

RALPH LYNCH

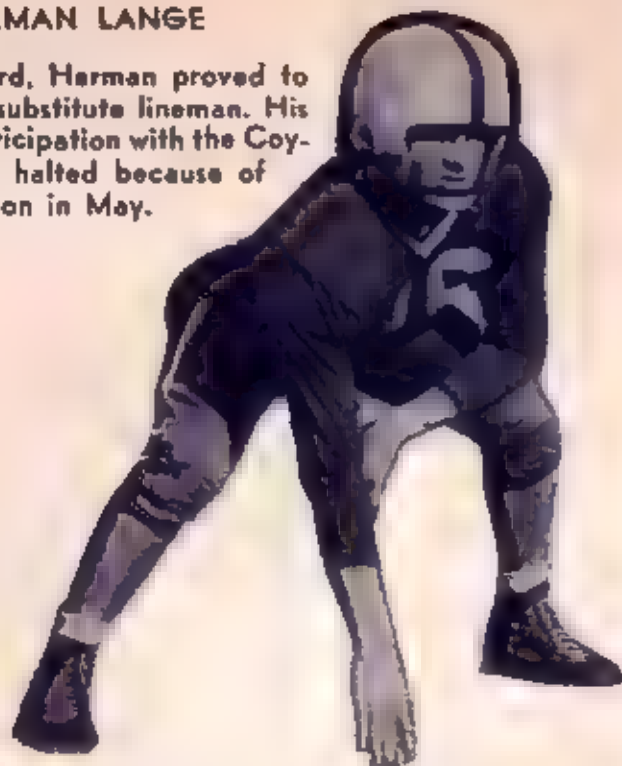

Ralph's services to the team were also limited because of injuries; but he gained a reputation for himself at the beginning of the season with deceptive ball-carrying.

COYOTES-ELECTRA

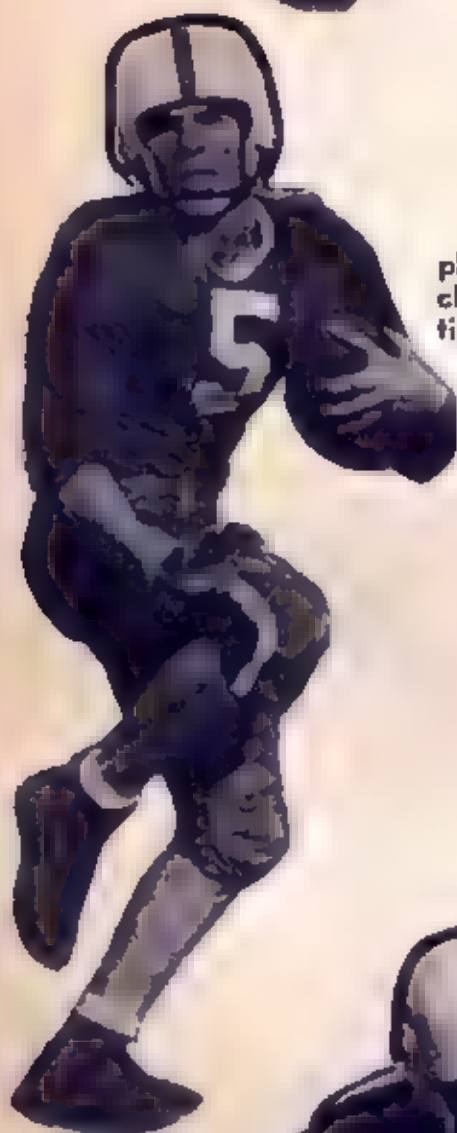

HERMAN LANGE

As a guard, Herman proved to be a good substitute lineman. His further participation with the Coyotes will be halted because of his graduation in May.

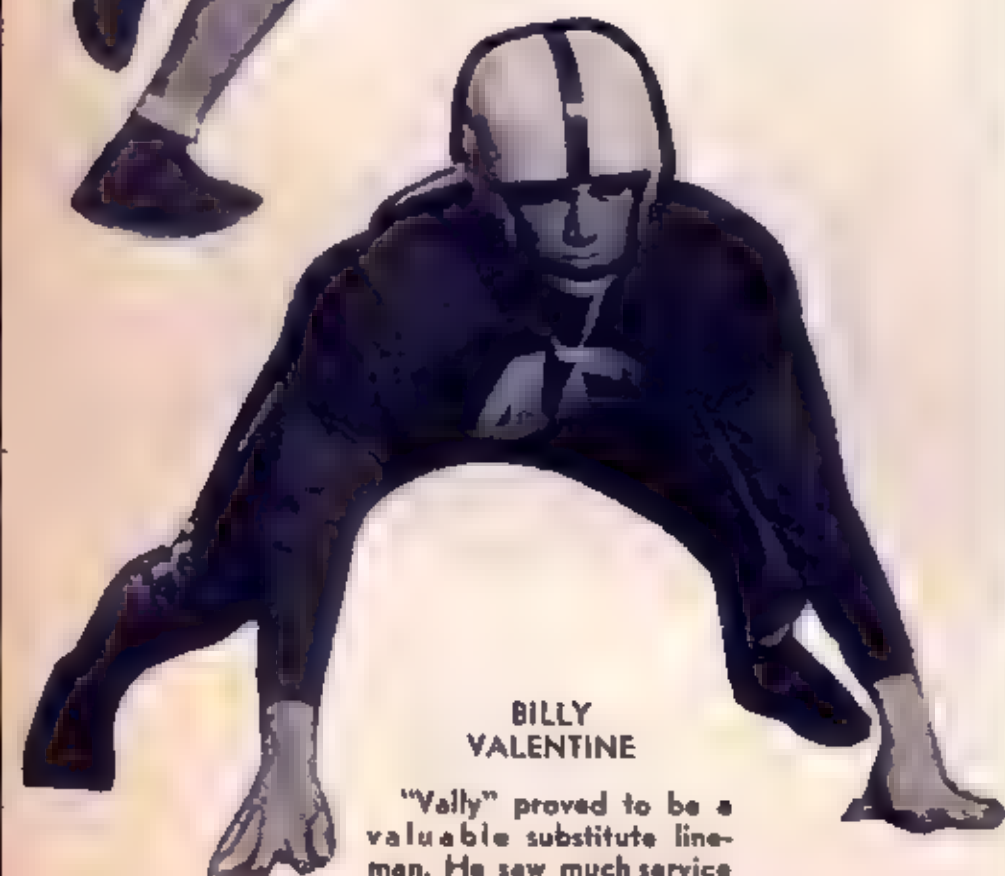

DON KROG

Don had the reputation of playing a fast and hard but clean game at wingback position. His ability of pulling down passes for large gains and his brilliant run-backs placed him on the third all-district line-up.

BILLY VALENTINE

"Vally" proved to be a valuable substitute lineman. He saw much service this season, really doing justice to the tackle position by his alertness, hard charging and stonewall defensive work.

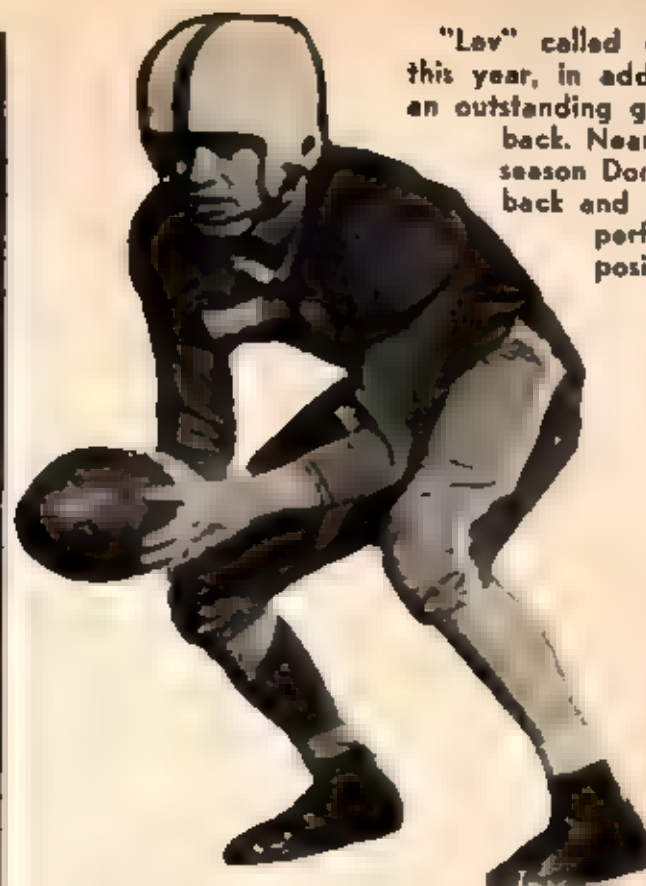

VERNON

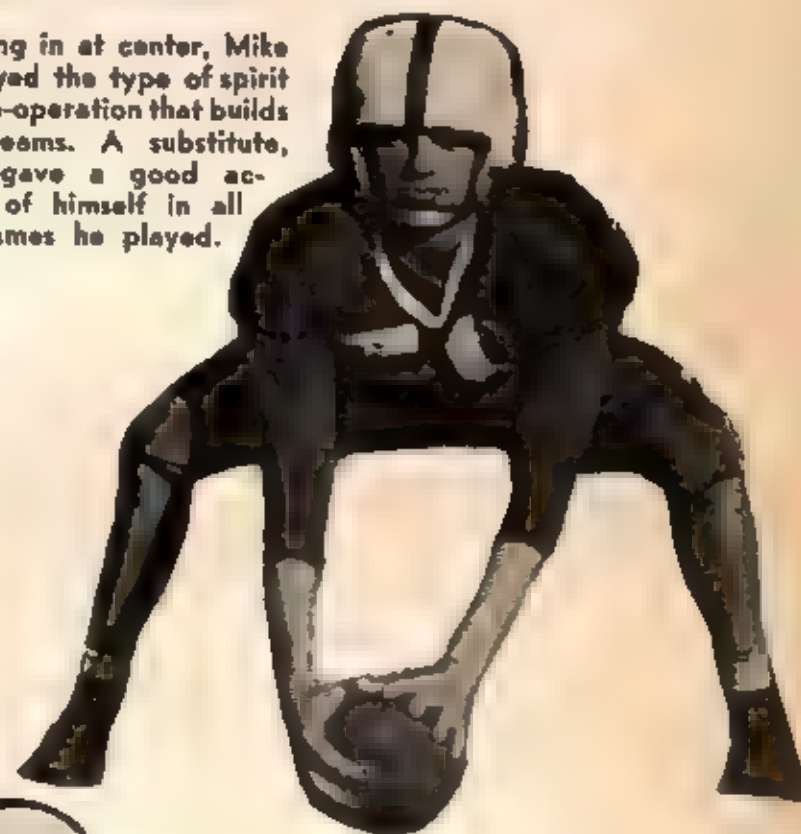

DONALD LEVERETT

"Lev" called offensive signals this year, in addition to playing an outstanding game at blocking back. Near the end of the season Don shifted to wing-back and turned in a fine performance at that position as well.

MIKE McCULLOUGH

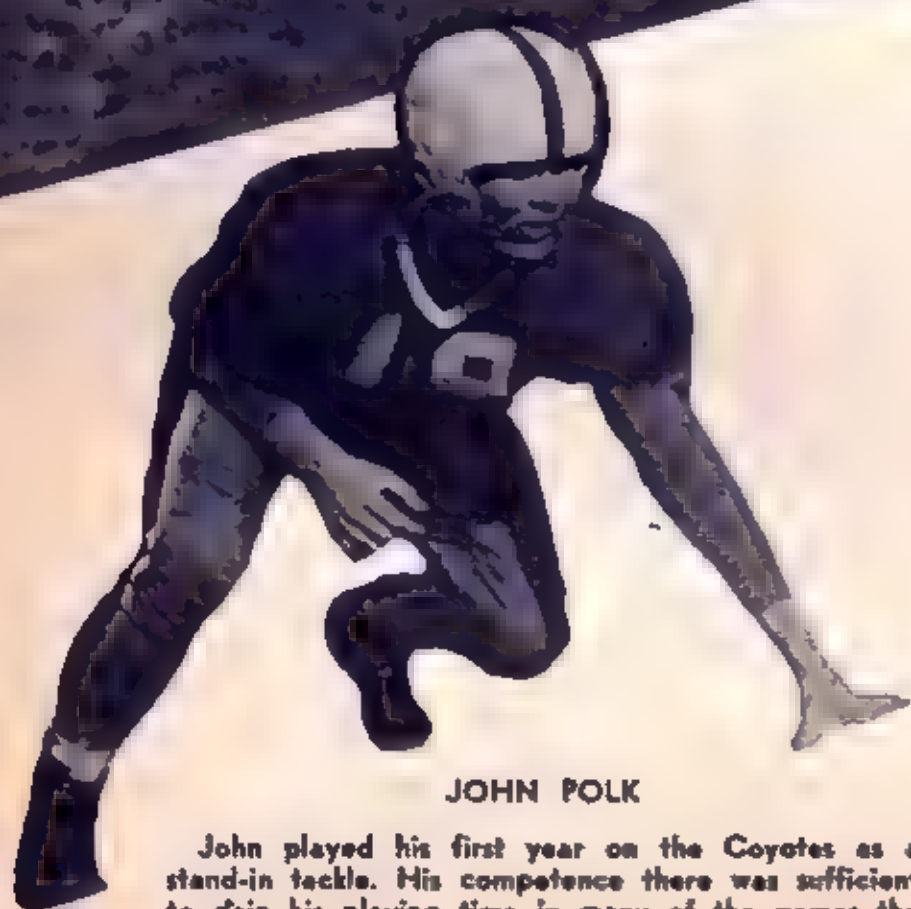

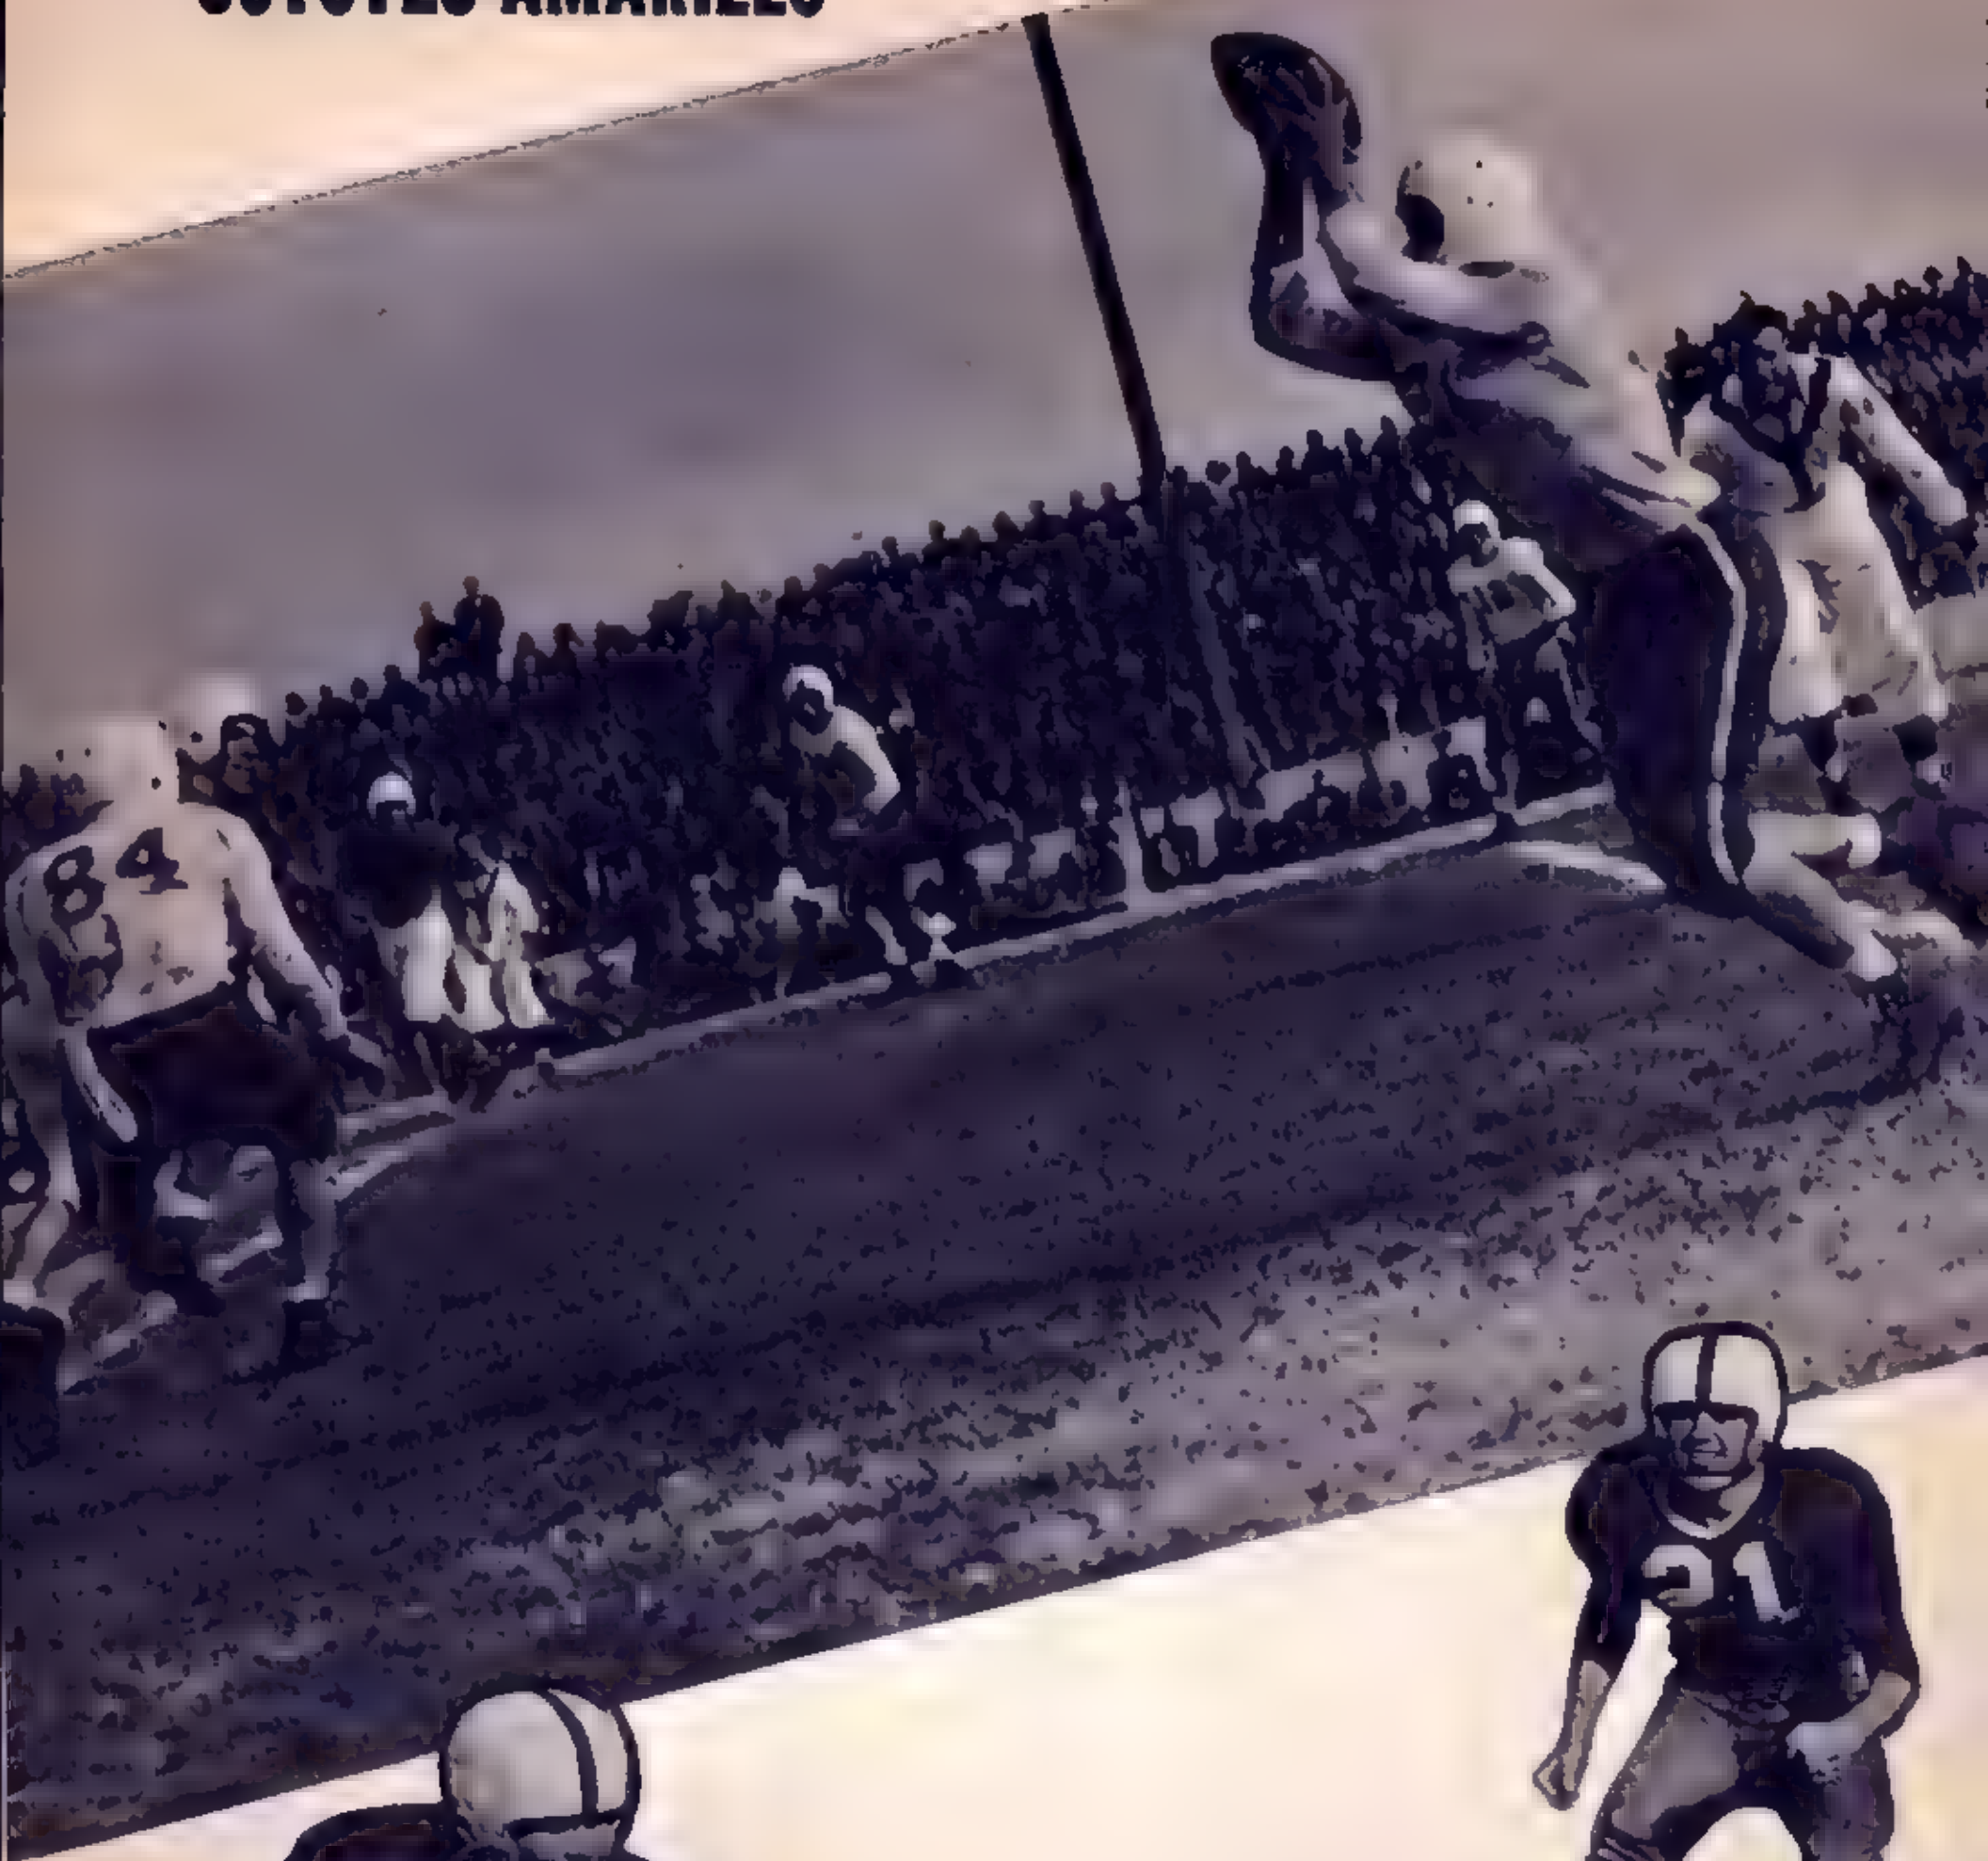

Filling in at center, Mike displayed the type of spirit and co-operation that builds fine teams. A substitute, Mike gave a good account of himself in all the games he played.

DON GREEN

Proving that dynamite comes in small packages, "Little Moon" played a rough and ready blocking back on this year's Coyote squad. Signal-calling on offense added to his abilities.

COYOTES-AMARILLO

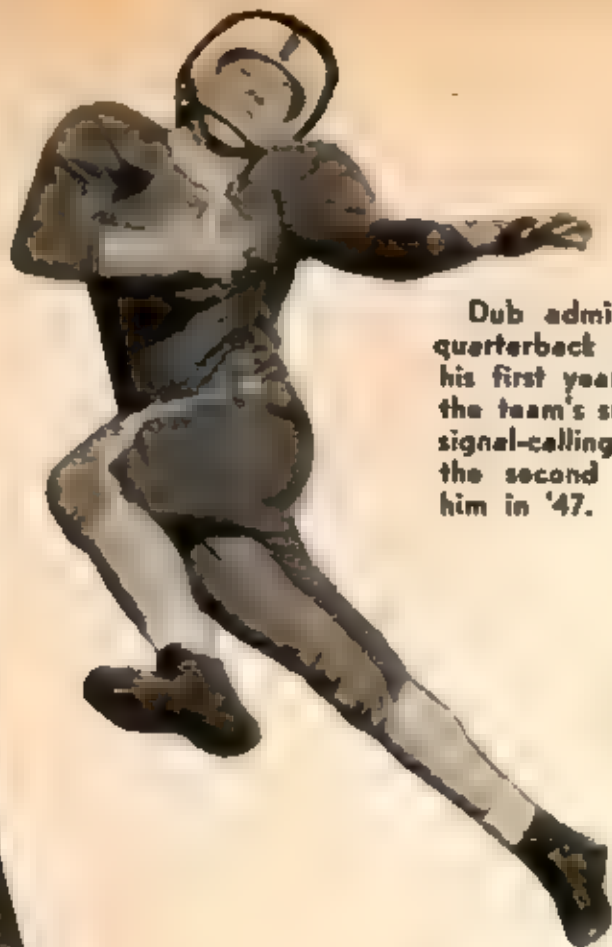

JOHN POLK

John played his first year on the Coyotes as a stand-in tackle. His competence there was sufficient to gain his playing time in many of the games the Coyotes played.

BERT CLARK

Acting as quarterback on defense, Bert proved his worth from the linebacker position in gaining first string all-district in addition to honorable mention all-state. His aggressive game at guard will again be a threat next year.

DUB JONES

Dub admirably held the position of quarterback and blocking back through his first year on the Coyotes. Much of the team's success was attributed to his signal-calling which also placed him on the second all-district team. Look for him in '47.

CHARLES BRANDON

Charles, although giving way to more experienced boys, lent his help to the Coyote team. He will return to take his place on the Coyote squad next season.

HAROLD SELVIDGE

Harold saw service in games through his steadiness at the center post. A replacement, he showed his ambition to play football.

WILLIAM SAMPSON

"Bloat" was the biggest man on the field as his opponents soon found out. The fact that he was almost impossible to move on offense added to his work on offense and made his playing beneficial to the team.

COYOTES-VERNON

Kneeling on the second row are Bill Nolan, Buster Goode, Billy Hammons, Jimmie Collier, Warren Coker, Don Griffin, Loren Henderson, Kenneth Standridge, Tom Eaton, Billy Skidmore, Jonas Amis, Foy Armstrong, Richard Coleman, Curtis Connor and Tybby Stewart.

COACH JOE K. REED

COACH C. E. CARAWAY

DAVID WHITEHEAD

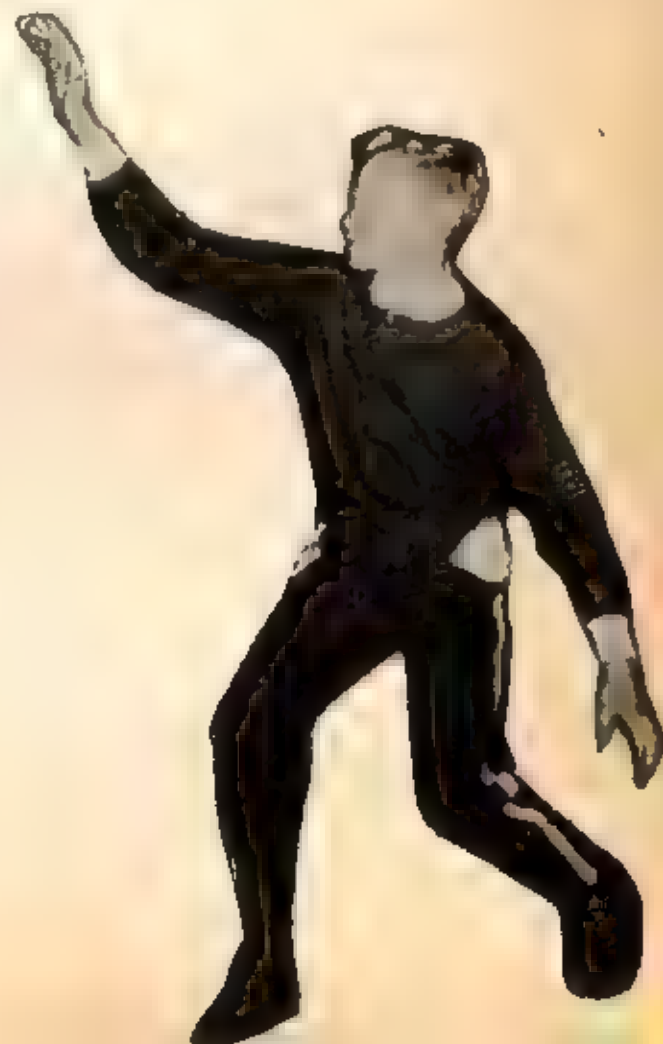

A sure starting guard, "Meatball" had the real basketball heart. His hard work both in practice and in play made him greatly beneficial to the team. David's fine services at guard will be lost through graduation.

LLOYD JOHNSON

The forward position could always depend on "Moose" to turn in an admirable performance. "Moose" could not call any position home, for he played guard and center, as well as forward, with the best of them. He graduates in May.

DALE HOUSE
"Red," one of the reliable reserve guards, could hit "em" from any angle. He always took his basketball to heart. He will be back on next year's Coyotes.

EARL YARBRO

"Red Bird" had a way that made him popular with all the boys. He always strengthened the forward position because of his alertness and aggressiveness. If Earl works as hard throughout life as he has in basketball, he is sure to succeed.

WAYNE ALLISON

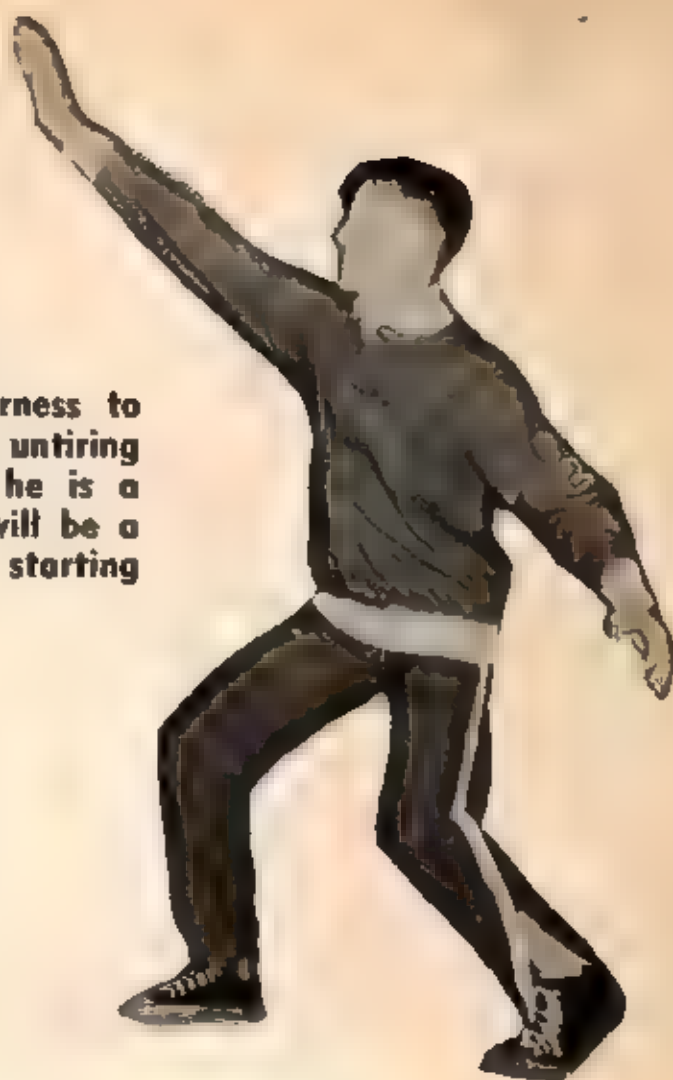

"Shorty" played center post on the starting line-up this season. The team could always depend on his getting the ball off the backboard which is a great help in this sport. Shorty will not return because of graduation.

GARY MOORE

Gary expressed his eagerness to play basketball through his untiring efforts this season. Since he is a junior, this reserve center will be a contender for next year's starting team.

JAMES RIDDLE

James exhibited good form at the reserve guard post. The second Electro game was a good example of his strong desire to play basketball. Look for him on next year's starting line-up.

DON JACKS

Here is the fellow who will probably keep that center position "hot" next year, though he played reserve forward this year. Don is a dangerous man because of his accuracy on set shots.

DUB JONES

Hustle and fight best describe the type of ball Dub played at forward. His constant chatter as well as his spirited play was always encouraging the team. We are fortunate to have a player of his ability return next year.

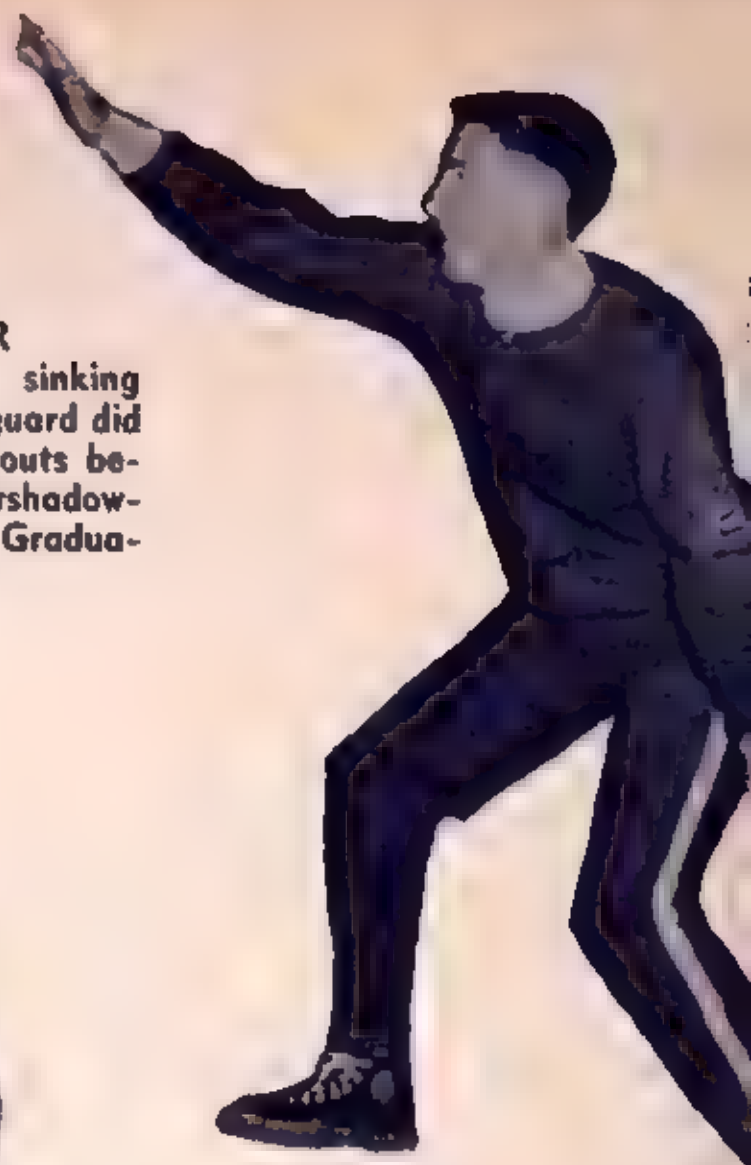

GENE FOSTER

Playing his first year of Coyote basketball, Gene showed up very favorably as a capable reserve forward. His admirable quality of staying with a task will surely reward him next year.

CHARLES SONNAMAKER

"Monkey" was outstanding in sinking far-off chest shots. This reserve guard did not seem to mind the daily workouts because his love for basketball overshadowed what others might call work. Graduation will claim him in May.

MACK KNIGHT

Mack, a reserve forward, takes every sport he plays seriously, whether it's football or basketball. Mack has made countless friends because of his pleasant manner and winning way.

FREDDIE SIMMONS

Returning from last year's starting line-up, "Fritz" displayed fine play at the guard position, especially in the important conference games. "Fritz" was always a vital factor with which the opposition had to cope. He will return next year.

KENNETH MARTIN

This reserve center had the "ole jiniger" it takes to play basketball. "Squirrel" could always be depended upon to give his best while playing. He always meant trouble for the opposing side.

TOSSING THE PLATTER

A large number of eager boys reported to Coach Joe Reese to make up the 1947 Track Team. Throughout the season the Coyotes provided stiff competition for all comers. In the first meet they matched with Electra and Vernon. They carried away a majority of the winnings in this meet which totaled 88½ points. They won first place in the 120 yard high hurdles, 100 yard dash, 400 yard dash, 440 yard relay, 880 yard dash, 220 yard dash, pole vault, high jump, shotput, and the broad jump. In the Southwestern Exposition Track Meet at Fort Worth, Jimmy Lawrence placed in the 100 yard dash and the 220 yard dash. Also the Football Relay Team consisting of Jim Bosworth, James Hankins, Dub Jones, and Harold Hall took fourth place in this meet. When the year book went to press, these were the only meets in which the Coyotes had participated.

BASEBALL - 1947

What seemed to be a distant possibility became a reality to dozens of boys in Wichita Falls Senior High. March, 1947, ushered in baseball, the grand old American pastime, under the sponsorship of the Interscholastic League of Texas. A span of twenty years had elapsed since eleven hustling Coyotes of '27 put away their gloves, not being able to continue Coyote baseball. Baseball standards were high then, and since the Second World War, baseball has slowly been built toward its prewar standard. Coach T. Richard Moss shouldered the responsibility of turning an inexperienced but enthusiastic group of boys into a good team. Since this was the first year, play will extend only through the district championships. Scores for the district games were not available, because they had not been played when the yearbook went to press.

More enthusiasm was shown in tennis this year than ever before as a result of the combined efforts of these three boys and three girls who made up the 1947 tennis team. This team represented Wichita Falls Senior High in the Interscholastic League District Tennis Tournament. Representatives of this group have played various teams throughout the state and have been under the able tutorship of Coach Tom McCarty.

OUR APPRECIATION

We, the members of the 1947 Coyote Staff, wish to thank those students who have aided us so much in the completion of the annual. To our third year art class we are indebted for the layouts in the faculty section. Our thanks go to Billy Carter and Earl Yarbrow for their assistance in the typing of copy. Too, we want to thank the Coyote English representatives for their help in the picture drive and distribution of the annuals. The entire faculty and student group have given splendid cooperation in the final production of THE COYOTE; to all we are grateful.

We feel that we have given sufficient space in this section for all your friends' autographs. Time, thought and effort have been put into every page to make this book one you will cherish in later years. For this reason, we feel that you will not want to write on the printed pages, since this would mar the appearance of your COYOTE.

Great in the magnificence of its match-
less beauty
Great in the mysterious miracle of its lure and fascination."
